

timber.

stain&tint guide

AMERICAN OAK

Also known as White Oak.

Appearance// Has a tight grain pattern that tends to run in a V shape. Colour is yellowish which becomes more prominent with age and light exposure. Beautiful knots & grains. Ghost Marks common. Not to be confused with European Oak.

Sustainably farmed & sourced in America.

// natural

// whitewash

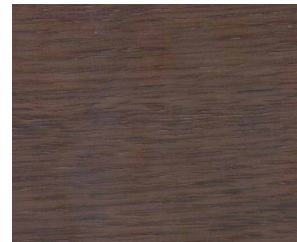

// greywash

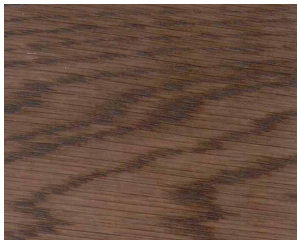

// chalk

// nordic white

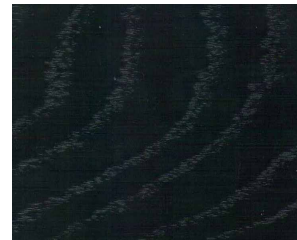

// walnut

// whiskey

// mocha

// true black

//KEEP IT AUSTRALIAN

TASMANIAN OAK

Also known as Victorian/Mountain Ash or Stringy Bark

Appearance// Ranges from very light to medium browns often with a pink hue. The grain tends to run straight and close through the timber

Naturally grown & sourced in Australia